School wide:

Next week there will be a picture day for the underclassmen on Monday and Tuesday. The high school will have an early release on Wednesday for a PD day and again the following Wednesday for Thanksgiving. We will also have no school on Thursday and Friday to celebrate Thanksgiving.

Clubs:

The Leo club will be helping with the Norfolk Lions Tree unloading on Saturday, November 14

Drama Club will continue holding meetings virtually on Mondays and Fridays from 7:30-8:30. They will continue this schedule until the winter vacation. Students are eager to meet in person however they are understanding why we are still remote.

The Annual DECA Installation Ceremony will still be held on November 19th at 7pm. It will be a virtual event held through Facebook Live. School committee members are welcome to attend. Live stream will be available through the KP DECA Facebook page. The district DECA competition will begin in January with mock competition week in early January followed by our district level competition. Both of these events will take place virtually. Details to follow.

Debate Club will have their meetings on Tuesdays at 2:45 via Zoom. They also had a Debate about the 2020 Presidential Election. Students are always welcome to join Debate Club. Email Miss LeBlanc at leblanct@kingphilip.org for more information

KP cares is starting to arrange tutoring sessions with the middle school. They also helped out with Student Council's Color Henry Carr KP Warrior Memorial Run/walk, they also ran a poinsettia fundraiser to raise funds for the Henry Carr scholarship too.

Student mentors in the Freshman Mentor Program reach out to their mentees every Monday with an email including questions and topics to talk about.

Student Council:

Student council held an Among Us video game tournament on Friday the 13th and held their Virtual Color run for the Henry Carr Scholarship November 7th. They also anticipate working with the Norfolk Lions and Community League to set a Christmas scene, similar to the Halloween car crawl.
