

10 Ways DRAMA CLUB Prepares You for Success in Life

You may think that I'm joking, but I'm not! These are just a few of the skills that you will walk away with after working on a production with KP Drama. Why is that important? Well, it will impress the folks, accessorize your college applications, and arm you with the skills that make you a marketable commodity to your future employer! Whoa, I thought we were just going to have some fun and put on a play!

1. Presentation Skills
2. Improvisation
3. Project Management
4. Working with Different Personalities
5. Understanding the Human Condition
6. Working with a Budget
7. Preparation of Milestones & Meeting them
8. Making Difficult Choices
9. Doing Whatever Needs to Be Done as a Team
10. Doing the Best You Can With What You Have

There is A LOT that goes on to make a show happen on stage, off stage, and weeks before the show actually happens. Acting is only part of the process. Interested in the production side? We've got a sign up sheet for that!! If you can dream it, we can make it, just maybe not always for the current show.:)
